

March 4, 2019

Dear Friends of North Brentwood,

June 2019 marks the 95th year of incorporation of the Town of North Brentwood. From its initial settlement by African-American veterans of the Civil War in 1887, to its incorporation in 1924 as the First African-American municipality in Prince Georges County, to the sustainable multicultural community it is today... we share an immense pride in our town.

We will be hosting an Anniversary Dinner Dance on June 7th, 2019 at La Fontaine Bleue, 7963 Annapolis Road in Lanham, Maryland. We invite you to join us as a sponsor or a participant.

A commemorative souvenir booklet will be published to mark this historic occasion. Become a sponsor or participant by placing an ad for your business, writing a memorial for someone you would like to remember, taking a quick selfie for our center spread, or becoming one of the Level Sponsors of the event. The booklet will make a great memento and your contribution will be viewed for years to come!

Information about individual tickets, sponsorships, as well as table purchases is available on Eventbrite at: iamnorthbrentwood.eventbrite.com.

Please review the attached form, for sizes and prices of the ad space to determine the level of support you desire. For more information regarding placement of ads, purchase of tickets/tables or other questions, please contact the Anniversary Committee member at 301.699.9699, extension 1227.

We look forward to your participation.

"I AM NORTH BRENTWOOD."

Respectfully,

Petrella Robinson
Mayor
